Staff: Tim Yowell (786-7435)

Background: The Legislature grants higher education institutions permission to waive all or a portion of tuition for certain types of students and purposes. The various waivers fall into three broad types: state-supported, discretionary, and space available. For state-supported waivers, it is assumed that state monies in the institutions' budgets will offset the tuition not collected from students to whom waivers are granted.

State-supported waivers are capped at a certain percentage of the total operating fee revenue the institution collects. Within its respective percentage caps, each institution decides how to apportion its waiver authority among the various categories of state-supported waivers. The waiver caps were established in 1992 as a result of changes to the way tuition revenue is treated. The amounts of the caps were based on the percentage of tuition revenue waived at each institution in 1992.

Summary of Engrossed Substitute Bill: The tuition waiver authority for Central Washington University (CWU) is increased from 8 percent to 10 percent.

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Available.

Committee/Commission/Task Force Created: No.

Effective Date: Ninety days after adjournment of session in which bill is passed. The bill is null and void unless funded in the budget.

Staff Summary of Public Testimony: PRO: CWU is presently handicapped by having the lowest tuition waiver authority. CWU has had $20 million less financial aid to offer over the years than that available at other state universities. More students will be able to afford a college education if this bill passes. It will help the college recruit a more diverse student body and enhance the total educational experience for all students.
